A Message from Pastor Mike

We are “MARCHING INTO MARCH”! It is time for us to experience the “Windy Month” and, WOW! Time keeps MARCHING ON! As we enter this great season of the year, can you hear the robins singing? Can you see the buds bursting open? Have you caught sight of the buttercups blooming yet? Is your grass starting to grow? This time of year greatly reinforces the truth that our God wants to do “A NEW THING”... let’s enjoy it!

This particular month is full of wonderful opportunities of ministry for the Bellview family. We see the First Responders Day that will allow us to reach out and honor our local community “heroes”. The students will be exposed to other teens rallying together at the Youth Evangelism Conference in Nashville. We will be privileged to give an extra offering to our North American missionaries on March 11 through the Annie Armstrong Offering. We will be asking many of the Bellview people to participate in a Home Prayer Cell on March 22 specifically praying for our SPRING RENEWAL and for Revival. And our SPRING RENEWAL is set for March 25-28... many great events this month that we can use to impact a life for Jesus. Let’s do it!

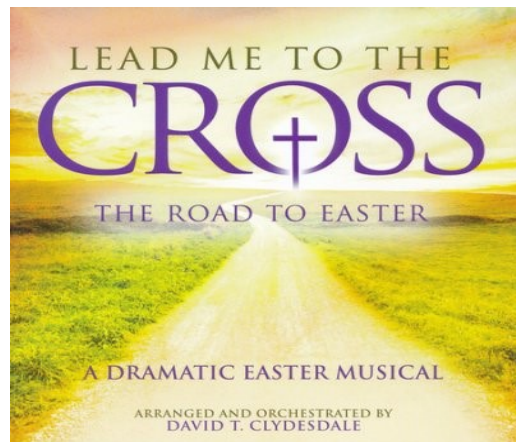

Those Home Prayer Cells may be the most important event all month. We really need to spend time praying for needs, for others, for revival and for souls. Let me encourage you to check the home list and choose a site that YOU will visit and join in praying for God to move in His mighty way. Let’s claim once again 2 Chronicles 7:14.

My college friend, David Burton, will be our revival preacher. Brother David has led hundreds and hundreds of precious people through the years to trust in Christ for salvation. He will be faithful to preach God’s Word and help us become “re-fired” about sharing our faith. Pray for him and invite a friend each night.

WATCH OUT! Just as soon as our SPRING RENEWAL is over, Brother Justin and our music ministry will present their Easter Musical “Lead Me to the Cross” on Saturday, March 31. The next day is EASTER SUNDAY! Mark your calendar & let’s encourage many folks to be a part of these exciting days.

I’m thankful to be part of a church family that is trying to use many methods to share the Gospel.... Let’s keep it up till Jesus comes. I love you!

-Pastor Mike

Music & Ed. Notes

Can you hear the birds chirping, the streams flowing, the flowers blooming? Spring is coming and so is Easter! What a messy month of February we had in our area! The choir started off this past month with a choir retreat where we learned new music and dug into our Easter musical “Lead Me To The Cross”. The choir will present the musical on Saturday, March 31st @ 7pm! Please start now to invite your family and friends as it will be a dramatic musical of our Lord and Saviors crucifixion and resurrection.

There are some very important events that will begin in March, but my prayer for our church and Sunday School leaders is that we don’t forget about our Bible Classes. This winter we have been hit hard on cold, sinus, surgeries, flu, and all kinds of other things that have affected our Sunday School. Our Bible Classes are an important part in the life of our church, and should be important to all of our members as well. Remember our 2018 theme “Little Acorns, Grow Into Big Oaks”, as Christians we are learning everyday, but our Bible Classes give us an opportunity to dig deeper into God’s Word and build relationships with others in the church. So, let me challenge all of our members to come to Bible Classes at 9am on Sunday mornings, but also invite a friend too!

--Bro. Justin

Student Ministry

Spring has just about sprung, and I, for one, am glad about that. This means warmer weather with late night bonfires, but more importantly it is a time when we see church and church related activities get more frequent. As the Student Ministry ramps up for spring and summer I want to thank my Youth Leaders for giving their time, talents, and commitment to the students. Without their constant help and guidance this department wouldn’t be where it’s at today. Although, we aren’t finished growing, they play an instrumental part to the success of the Student Ministry Department. They will never fully understand what they mean to me, as well as, to these students and parents.

March is going to be an exciting time for the Youth Department. Be in prayer as, the Students, Leaders, and Workers, venture to Nashville, TN for the 50th annual Youth Evangelistic Conference on March 9th -10th. This will give our students a chance to connect with God through a weekend of preaching and praising Him. We are praying that God will move in and around the Student Ministry like we have never seen before. Then, immediately when we get back we will be having a Student Led Worship Service. Bro. Justin has been rehearsing with the Students on Wednesday night, and I know that will be a blessing to everyone. Leading up to, and during, Youth Led Worship please pray for our Youth as they will be providing songs, testimonies, and stepping out of their comfort zones to glorify God.

As we move into spring, I pray that we began preparing our hearts and inviting people to attend our spring revival. This is our time to surround ourselves with preaching and praising the Lord. As we head towards summer the Youth will be involved in several community service projects around and in McCracken County.
